Discovering Factors HW

Directions:

1. Find a number within the range of 1-100 that has only two factors and model it using grid paper to show the array. Label the factors.

2. Find another number that has more than 2 factors and model it using the grid paper to show all possible arrays. Label Find another number that has more than 2 factors and model it using the grid paper to show all possible arrays. Label the factors.